

Module 16 Residential Experiences

Worksheet 2

Reviewed in June 2024

Scenario 1

Who: 16 Beaver Scouts, 1 Young Leader, 2 Parent Helpers, 1 Beaver Scout Leader and 1 Assistant Beaver Scout Leader.

Where and when: The Scout hut is situated on the edge of a village next to an area of heathland. It's on a busy main road which is at the front and there is only room for 2 cars to pull off into the parking area at the side of the hut.

Programme: Theme Amazing Earth. Activities include: Paint/colour large craft stones to represent Earth, make a terrarium out of glass jar, den building, salt dough nature print ornaments, make exploding Lego volcano.

Scenario 2

Who: 24 Scout Network members and 2 leaders.

Where and when: Scout Activity Centre/campsite on a bank holiday weekend.

Programme: Camping at regional scout network event. Activities provided by camp organisers. Other info: They don't have their own equipment and will need to borrow from other groups in the district. Transport for gear is limited. Network members will need to travel by public transport, no time/space for food shopping - considering organising online shopping delivery to site.

Scenario 3

Who: 16 Cub Scouts.

Where and when: Summer camp at local campsite which has canoeing activities, situated by a wood, two miles from the nearest town.

Programme: Outdoors cooking, canoeing, tracking through the woods. Roman theme.

Other info: Older Cubs will be camping, but indoor lodge available for younger Cubs.

Scenario 4

Who: A Scout Troop of 17, accompanied by a Scout Leader, an Assistant Scout Leader and 2 parents.

Where and when: Camp for a week at a campsite outside their home District.

Version 2

Edited in May 2024

Programme: Weeks activities include hiking, pioneering and water activities. The site offers a range of basic activities including orienteering and pioneering, and has all the necessary equipment for hire, but no staff.

Other info: Scouts travel to the camp using public transport and hiking.

Scenario 5

Who: Explorer Scouts divided into 4 teams of 4 to 6 people.

Where and when: Start walking on Friday night and intend to finish mid-afternoon on Sunday. The area is local and familiar. There are a couple of commercial campsites in the area, otherwise it is private land.

Programme: Practice for their Silver Duke of Edinburgh's Award expedition.
