Please note

County: Although in some parts of the British Isles Scout Counties are known as Areas or Islands – and in one case Bailiwick – for ease of reading, this publication simply refers to County/Countries. In Scotland there is no direct equivalent to County or Area. In Scotland, Scouting is organised into Districts and Regions, each with distinct responsibilities. Some ‘County’ functions are the responsibility of Scottish Regions, while others lie with Scottish Districts. The focus of responsibility is outlined in Scottish variations from POR.

Saying thank you

It's so important that we thank and recognise our fellow Scouts for their incredible service. These are the shining lights who make Scouts possible.

Most of us in Scouts look for, and expect, no reward. But a timely word of thanks is always appreciated and can work wonders.

Our Good Service Awards are an opportunity to make that occasional 'thank you' even more special. They're for those special volunteers who, over time, you find yourself thanking more frequently.

I also love the fact we celebrate those young people and adults who show courage in adversity and quick thinking in the face of danger.

While we can't recognise everyone every year – it's vital we recognise those who have truly shone and I'm sure the awards listed in this document mean the world to those outstanding people and their families.

Bear Grylls OBE
Chief Scout

In my role I am privileged to witness many examples across the UK of the astounding hard work of so many adult volunteers and staff who make Scouts a real adventure for young people. The awards in this document are a chance to recognise the amazing achievements, commitment and dedication of our volunteers and staff. It is humbling to read the citations - and in particular those of the truly inspiring recipients of Meritorious Conduct and Gallantry Awards who have shown such courage and determination in the most challenging of circumstances.

I truly believe that Scouts is needed today more than it has ever been; our work to develop young people, connect communities and help young people to better understand and appreciate one another will doubtless help to make this world a better place. Whatever you do in Scouts, please accept my heartfelt thanks for your hard work that makes our movement such an astonishing force for good.

Tim Kidd
UK Chief Commissioner

Good Service Awards

(Issued between 1 January 2019 and 31 December 2019)

Baden-Powell chose St George to be the Patron Saint of Scouting. St George embodied the qualities to which he wanted Scouts to aspire: faith, bravery and determination. St George's Day is celebrated on 23 April each year and is an important day in the Scouting calendar where volunteers can be recognised with good service awards.

The Silver Wolf

The Silver Wolf is the unrestricted gift of the Chief Scout and is only awarded for service of a most exceptional nature. It is not normally awarded until at least a Silver Acorn has been previously gained and a further prolonged period of exceptional service has been achieved. In practice, it is seldom awarded for less than 30 years' service although, because it is the Chief Scout's unrestricted gift, no length of service is prescribed.

The Bar to the Silver Acorn

The Bar to the Silver Acorn may be awarded only after a Silver Acorn and for at least a further five years of similarly distinguished service.

The Silver Acorn

The Silver Acorn is awarded after at least 20 years' service, which should be specially distinguished and appreciably better than outstanding.

The Bar to the Award for Merit

The Bar to the Award for Merit may be awarded after at least five years of further outstanding service after receiving the Award for Merit.

The Award for Merit

The Award for Merit is given for outstanding service. It implies keen, conscientious, imaginative and dedicated service over a sustained period, of at least 12 years duration (exceptionally 10).

The Chief Scout's Commendation for Good Service

The Chief Scout's Commendation for Good Service is given in respect of not less than 5 years good service, which stands out. It should be regarded as the Chief Scout's recognition of the very real contribution made to the Association by the individual concerned.
